The Birth of a Mill City. "You didn't need an alarm clock to tell you it was time to go to work – you could hear the whistle blow for miles.". All areas of life in Kannapolis centered around the mill, and the entire town was built for a Cannon labor force. Three shifts worked around the clock, and in little time, Cannon Mills went from small-town

The community became the quintessential "company town" of Kannapolis. A 1928 consolidation of nine textile plants into the Cannon Mills Company helped the business survive the Depression. Cannon continued to add to its family of mills throughout most of the twentieth century, buying such companies as Maiden Knitting Mills (1969), Wiscassett Mills Company (1978), and Beacon Manufacturing (1978).
