Crafting has never been more popular and Maggy Woodley, the creative force behind Red Ted, is passionate about making things with her children, Max, four, and Pippa, two. Using recycled materials and bits and bobs collected when out and about, here are over 60 utterly irresistible things to make with your kids. From adorable peanut shell finger puppets to walnut babies, loo roll marionettes and egg carton fairy lights, fabric mache bowls, stick men and shell crabs, stone people, and many more, these are projects for all the family to have fun with. And what's more, the end results are so cute and desirable that they look great around the home, or make wonderfully unique and personal gifts. With a funky, modern design and vibrant full colour photography throughout, this is a must-have addition to every young family's bookshelf.

An injured goose rescued by Babushka, having broken the painted eggs intended for the Easter Festival in Moscva, lays thirteen marvelously colored eggs to replace them, then leaves behind one final miracle in egg form before returning to her own kind.

Creative Easter Crafts for Kids is an activity book that features 20 crafts related to the Bible story of Jesus' death and resurrection. Included in each activity is a Scripture reference, short story based on a Bible passage or theme, questions for children to answer, and a craft that reinforces the story. Whether this book is used by a teacher as a classroom resource or by children working independently, Bible learning will be taking place as children enjoy using their God-given creativity. This book is suitable for ages 8 and up. Creative Easter Crafts for Kids has been designed for use at home or in a classroom setting with kids ages 8 and up. Depending on their skill and reading level, children may be able to create the crafts independently; however, we recommend that a parent or teacher be available to review the craft for suitability and offer assistance if needed. The crafts may be done in any order. Each craft includes a Scripture passage to look up and read in the Bible, as Macca the alpaca's days were happy and carefree until -- drama! -- a llama. In this adorable, quirky picture book, Macca the alpaca loves splashing in puddles and gives the best cuddles. But when he bumps into a big bullying llama named Harmer (who's no charmer), Macca must prove the value of smarts and kindness.

When the mayor of Mouseville announces a contest for the best Easter basket, Desmond and Clayton are in competition with each other until they realize that if they work together they could create the biggest Easter basket.

Catechists and teachers will love these crafts. In particular, they will love how quickly and inexpensively they can be done. They are the perfect complement to lessons on the Bible, the Church year, nature, the gospels, and Jesus. The detailed directions and illustrations make each craft project simple and easy for both adult leaders and children. Best of all, all of these crafts have a place in whatever textbook series a catechist or teacher might be using and are perfect for children in grades one through six. Also included is a companion CD that makes all components, including worksheets, easy to print and distribute.

A collection of craft ideas for kids that create a minimum of mess.

Kanzashi tsumami is the Japanese art of folding delicate squares of silk into three-dimensional flower petals. In the United States, the online craft culture has sprouted a renewed interest in making Kanzashi with American crafters devising simplified ways to create these gorgeous fabric flowers and incorporating more user-friendly materials like cotton and synthetic fabrics along with the traditional silks. Kanzashi in Bloom takes the American interpretation of Kanzashi a step further, presenting modern, more easily executed flower designs as elements in a variety of fun, fashionable, hip craft projects. Kanzashi in Bloom offers advice on materials, three petal-folding styles, and techniques for assembling a Kanzashi flower. You'll also find instructions for 20 projects to wear and give as gifts, including: ¶ Tiny blossom earrings ¶ Flowers-in-your-hair clips ¶ The happiest belt buckle ever ¶ Elegant floral gift topper
