In today ' s world, the freight brokerage industry is growing continuously and it is very rewarding to become a freight broker if you build upon the right foundation. For instance, a freight broker can profit anywhere between 10% and 35% per any shipment they handle. Starting out at first could fetch you around $100 to $500 per shipment. Upon building professional networks and having some solid experience to go with it, you could earn as much as $5,175 for every shipment. Multiplying this value with the number of shipments handled per day can be astonishing! However, the reason most new freight brokers fail to succeed is because they lack proper knowledge and understanding of the business and what they hope to achieve. Before commencing a new freight brokerage business, you have to take into account several factors, one of which is getting educated. This is likely the most critical factor to consider when starting your brokerage business. The key to success is knowledge and to be successful, you must be well-informed about the freight moving

Become Part of a Champion Industry that Overpowers Even the Toughest Economic Crises. Take a minute of your time, and look around you. Notice the furniture, gadgets, books, and all the other stuff you have lying around your home or office. Chances are, the majority of those items came to you by truck. E-commerce has changed the way we buy and sell things, especially in the light of current global events. This, in turn, has created a huge, global demand for transport carriers, especially motor carriers. The trucking industry has been flourishing and growing for some time now, and it will continue to do so, according to a market research report from Technavio. They predict that the global market size will reach an impressive $41.47 billion by 2024. This extremely favorable forecast provides a fantastic opportunity for those who wish to become a part of this lucrative industry. Large trucking companies own a significant portion of that cake, but a huge amount of transport in the US is handled by freight brokers. In fact, the demand for these cargo intermediaries has risen exponentially throughout 2020, and market analysis shows that this is the perfect time to break into a freight industry. But there is a catch. Many have already recognized this amazing opportunity, and the number of independent freight brokers is increasing. Luckily, the market is so huge that there's enough room for more, but competition is a factor that needs to be considered. This is why those who are considering to venture into the freight broker industry need to tread carefully, and take certain steps to ensure not only a great start to their business, but the potential to grow and expand. In Freight Broker Business Startup 2021, you will discover: Bulletproof freight brokerage business strategies, modeled after the latest market and industry analysis Detailed instructions for finding a profitable niche and conducting micro marketing for generating maximum profit A comprehensive guide through start-up costs and expenses, to help you invest your money smartly, and avoid unnecessary expenses How a bad business plan (or lack of it) can make your business fail before it even starts -- and a simple, effective template for writing one Helpful
